

2021 Chancellor Awards Categories and Criteria

The Chancellor's Awards for Excellence accepts nominations in five categories with a total of six awards. Awards are open to individuals from the Anchorage campus or one of UAA's community campuses. Awardees will receive $250.00.

We Put Students First: The Students-First Award

Faculty and staff | Two awards: One for a faculty member and one for a staff member for all UAA campuses.

Demonstrates exceptional commitment to advancing a culture of institutional excellence that inspires and enables student achievement and success in two or more of the

Criteria

Impact level showing advancement of diversity for students, faculty and staff
Impact level creating an atmosphere of inclusiveness and community
Level “above & beyond” normal job requirements/functions
Impact to advancing UAA’s Mission
Other noteworthy qualities considered

Nominate a faculty or staff member for the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion award.

We Embrace our Role as a Trusted and Respected Community Partner: The Community Partnership Award

Faculty, staff or individuals and organizations outside UAA for support of (other than financial) and advocacy for the university and its mission. | One award per year for all UAA campuses.

Outstanding contribution to the advancement of UAA students, staff and faculty while increasing the alignment to meet the community needs.

Criteria

Examples of support and advocacy efforts
Relationship of efforts to university mission
Significance of direct impact of support efforts on university and its mission
Length of time of relationship of individual or organization with university
Outstanding contribution to advancing partnerships between the university and Alaska's schools, public and private industries, and community organizations which advances a culture of institutional excellence that inspires and enables student, faculty and staff success and/or the university's role as a productive civic partner and an engaged university.
Demonstrated innovative and creative approaches to research and development partnerships which build and sustain Alaska's economic growth and promote reciprocity and shared decision making.
Deepen and expand community engagement
Other noteworthy qualities considered

Nominate an outstanding person/organization for the Community Partnership award.

We Accelerate Excellence through Continuous Improvement: Administrative Excellence Award

